Bridging
the gap.

The 32nd International Conference on Business Incubation is the largest gathering of entrepreneurial ecosystem leaders on the planet.

InBIA's International Conference on Business Incubation unites a global community of entrepreneurial ecosystem thought leaders that oversee business incubators, accelerators, and entrepreneurship centers and that drive economic development strategy focused on building entrepreneurial ecosystems in their communities. Attendees come to connect with InBIA's global community, share ideas to further the entrepreneurial movement, gather new tools and strategies for their programs, collaborate with their peers from around the world, evaluate service providers and strategic partners, and have fun!

The conference theme, "Bridging the gap," resonates with the heart of our attendees. They are entrepreneurs, thought leaders and pioneers— if there isn't a clear path they will make one. Forging connections between new ideas, networking with entrepreneurial ecosystem leaders and collaborating with like-minded thought leaders are the core of what makes ICBI32 a fundamentally enriching experience for our attendees.
