Sponsor/Exhibitor Prospectus

The 33rd International Conference on Business Incubation hosted by the International Business Innovation Association.

April 13-17, 2019 in Minneapolis, Minnesota
The 33rd International Conference on Business Incubation (ICBI33) is the largest gathering of entrepreneurial ecosystem leaders on the planet.

InBIA's International Conference on Business Incubation unites a global community of entrepreneurial ecosystem thought leaders who oversee business incubators, accelerators, and entrepreneurship centers and who drive economic development strategy focused on building entrepreneurial ecosystems in their communities. Attendees come to connect with InBIA's global community, share ideas to further the entrepreneurial movement, gather new tools and strategies for their programs, collaborate with peers from around the world, evaluate service providers and strategic partners, and have fun!

The conference theme, “Innovate, Collaborate, Elevate,” resonates with the heart of our attendees. They are the people who elevate entrepreneurs to the next level through innovative programming and strategies. At ICBI33, they will have the opportunity to forge connections between new ideas as they network and collaborate with other entrepreneurial ecosystem leaders. Attendees come away from this event with new tools and strategies for supporting the entrepreneurs with whom they work every day.
